

The Elms
Chapel Hill
Mr. Leeds. July 20/67

186
My dear Mr. Garrison.

I had hoped to have seen you in Paris
or London, but you had just left Paris when I called upon you,
& I only saw you son-
in-law who promised
to bring you my card.
I was unable to join
your grand Meeting in London, though
nothing would have given me greater pleasure
than to have been there,

I joined with my fellow countrymen
in giving you the hearty welcome to Old England
again, & congratulating you on the glorious
success attending
your labors. I had a letter a few weeks
since from my friend
W. C. Collyer of Chicago
who said he had seen
you the day before
you sailed for England & gave you some kind
message for me, if you
crossed my path. Now
I want to know when you are coming South

again, & could pass
a night or two in Leeds, & take a bed
at my house, & if possible attend a meeting in Leeds, if our A. S. friends
got one up for you,
either a public book-
-fast or a large public meeting in the evening.
Upon hearing from
you, if you can send me a line by Return
we will make some arrangement, when we

Know the day you can be here. I have seen Wilson & mistend &
day & a few other A. S. friends, who will gladly join in this meeting
if you are at liberty & could conveniently
pass through Leeds
on your way South.

Perhaps early in the month suit you best.
This is not a very favorable time for large public evening meetings but still it would be pleasant to talk over to friends & doings, & to renew acquaintance
yours very faithfully
W. L. Garrison
Joseph Lupton